I am a full stack web developer with 9 years of experience with exper;se in PHP, Drupal CMS, React JS.I have worked with some of the esteemed organisatons like Compass group Australia, Amway, Axis bank and McKinsey as a web consultant. Additionally, I have experience working as a Business Analyst as well on projects within the banking, e-commerce, and educaton sectors.My approach to software development is rooted in my ability to identify technical debt and my commitment to writing clean and reusable code. I believe in team work and I have worked with mid, large size teams. I've also worked on high-traffic websites using ReactJS and Drupal, including an intranet blog for the McKinsey. This plaPorm was designed to facilitate internal communica;on and Drupal APIs.
